

SkillsUSA Maryland Advisors, Two Attachments on FLC page of website

As many of you know, when the Fall Leadership Conference is facilitated in-person students must orally share/recite SkillsUSA information aligned to a study guide to earn the Statesman Award. The ultimate goal is for students to learn more about the organization while meeting/greeting and spending time with board members, state officers, past officers and alumni. Each year, the vast majority of students earn their Statesman and Advanced Statesman awards. We'd like to keep the enthusiasm going this year in what we all hope is our last virtual fall leadership conference.

So, students who have already completed the Statesman test but scored below the 80% minimum required to earn the Statesman Award, certificate and pin will have an opportunity to retake the test next Monday, November 1, 2021.

Please encourage all students who have not yet attempted the test to complete it by tomorrow if they would like a second opportunity (assuming they don't pass the first time!). See revised study guide attached.

Also attached, see FLC Conference-at-a-Glance flyer. Google Meets meeting links are included in the flyer. Be sure that your students view the FLC promotional video message from the State Officer Team! – link in flyer.

Stay healthy,
Chuck
