Item #2: IMPORTANT! Friday Only! - Registration Material Pick-up at MCC

All conference-related registration materials (ie. contestant name badges, programs, etc.) is available Friday only at the Maritime Conference Center, April 1, 2022, 2:30 pm-6:30 pm.

The SkillsUSA State Championship registration table is located in the MCC South Residence Tower Lobby, directly across from the front desk.

This information will not be available Saturday morning at any conference location.

Item #3: State Championship Shuttle Service

Carefully review the conference program (pg. 3) “Schedule of Events” and CATN Map (after pg. 12) to ensure that students who compete at locations other than CATN know when and where the shuttle buses depart. Please instruct your students to go directly to our shuttle buses so they can depart as scheduled. If you students are late for the shuttles they will miss them. Thanks for your help with this!

Item #4: Judges Needed For Friday Competitions at CCMIT

Adults staying overnight at MCC who are available and interested in judging Friday evening competitions are needed. Please submit names at the State Championship registration table. Volunteers will not be assigned to competitions involving students from the same school/chapter. Thanks for your help with this request.

Item #5: Masks Required For Students Competing at HCAT!

Students competing in Culinary Arts and Restaurant Service must wear masks while in the HCAT building. AACC masking mandate is in effect.

Item #6: Masking - General Guidelines for State Championship

Wearing face masks is optional at the 2202 State Championship, with the exception of students competing at HCAT.

Item #7: State Championship Courtesy Corps Volunteers Needed

If you have students who are available and interested in serving as State Championship Courtesy Corps volunteers, Saturday, April 2, please complete this brief online form: Courtesy Corps Volunteer Sign-Up

Courtesy Corps assignments will be confirmed Friday evening (at MCC). Please encourage students to volunteer and sign them up! One of our volunteers will win a Lowe's gift card!

Item #8: Register Delegates For Friday Delegate Assembly at CCMIT!
